DETOURING OF RIO GRANDE TRAINS OVER UNION PACIFIC

Washouts Cause Passengers Routed Over the Gould Line to Be Sent From Denver to Ogden Over Harriman Road—Trains Have Been Annulled—Rio Grande Crippled.

Owing to a multiplicity of troubles in the way of washouts and wrecks and the like, train service on the Rio Grande system has been seriously interrupted during the past day or two, and last evening a ten-car Rio Grande special was sent to Denver over the Union Pacific system and by way of Cheyenne. This morning another Rio Grande special, composed entirely of Pullman cars, was made up in Denver and left that city for Ogden by way of Cheyenne over the Union Pacific lines.

Just how long this detouring of first class Rio Grande trains over the Union Pacific will continue is not known, owing to the policy of the Gould management to keep the public in ignorance of existing conditions along the various lines comprising the system. Local officials of that road are not blamed for the secretive methods adopted by the higher officials and, when questioned regarding train service generally, can simply state that such and such trains are on time or are indefinitely detained—somewhere.

EXHIBIT AT FOUR-STATE FAIR

DOZEN SALT LAKE CONCERNS TO MAKE DISPLAYS.

Large Space Has Been Engaged and Dan Collett Says There Will Be Fine Exhibits.

The following statement was made yesterday by Dan Collett, secretary of the Utah Manufacturers' association: "The fair to be held September 6 to 11, under the auspices of the International Four-State Fair association, promises to be the most elaborate and interesting of any undertaken in Ogden. More exhibits by far will be in evidence from points south of Ogden than ever before. From Salt Lake will come displays from a dozen or fifteen large manufacturing concerns. If space could be provided, the number of exhibits from the capital would be doubled. As it is, the exhibition managers have found it necessary to change the location of a number of proposed displays in order to accommodate the Salt Lakers."

"Among the Salt Lake firms that will make exhibits in Ogden are the following: C. Z. M. I. shoe and overalls factories; J. G. McDonald chocolate company; Hewlett Bros. company; Jensen Creamery company; Salt Lake Mattress company; Cache Valley Condensed Milk company; Utah Consolidated Plaster company; Mount Pickle company; Maxfield Vinegar Works; said Mr. Collett."

A Word For Unity.
"In the minds of many, a chasm of rivalry bordering on jealousy and petty discrimination exists between the business interests of Salt Lake and Ogden. If such conditions exist they should be changed entirely and at once. In the interests of a greater Utah. Effort to excel is at all times commendable, so long as the individual or community does not build with the evident intention of injury to others. Salt Lakers opine that all the 'knockers' are residents in Ogden, and the Ogdenites seem to be exactly of opposite opinion. Final analysis of the situation reveals the fact that each is not considerate enough of the welfare of the other. To say that either is entirely at fault would be untrue, and it would be equally inconsistent to aver that neither is blamable."

OFFICER HAD MANSON HAS A SEVERE TUSSLE OBTAINED DATA

STRANGER WITH A GUN RESISTS ARREST.

Detective From Louisville, Kentucky, Aids the Local Policeman—Man Was Drunk.

RETURNS FROM A TRIP TO CARSON AND FRISCO.

Nevada and California Railroad Is Leased to Southern Pacific for a Long Term of Years.

J. M. Adams, a member of the detective force of Louisville, Kentucky, assisted Patrolman Al Herrick in arresting M. P. Wright, who claims to be a full-blooded Hawaiian, at the corner of Wall avenue and Twenty-fifth street, this morning, while four husky men stood near without even lifting a finger to help the officer.

Patrolman Herrick's attention was called to Wright when the man opened a small grip and pulled out a revolver which he brandished in the air ferociously and pointed in the direction of his wife who was a short distance ahead of him. When the officer attempted to arrest Wright, the latter began to fight and entered Murphy's grocery store on the corner of Wall avenue and Twenty-fifth street, where he laid the gun down on the counter, and engaged in a hand-to-hand struggle with the policeman. While the officer was trying to take charge of Wright, Mr. Adams entered and assisted in getting control of the man.

In police court Wright pleaded not guilty to disturbing the peace. He said he was about to sell the revolver in Murphy's place, and that is why he took it out of the grip. His wife is in need of food, he said, but she objected seriously to his disposing of the weapon. He wanted the money which he was to receive for the revolver to buy food for his family, he declared.

The court was of the opinion that Wright was somewhat under the influence of liquor when he testified, and he was ordered back to jail to sober up and his trial will be called tomorrow.

Detective Adams, who assisted the local officer in the arrest, is on his way to Seattle and is spending the day in Ogden. He said that Wright would probably have been dealt with much more severely in Kentucky than he was here, after resisting an officer.

Beautiful Singer at the Oracle and Globe.

The singing by Mr. Sneddon at the Oracle this week is simply beautiful, especially in that beautiful old song, "SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD," a song one never tires of hearing, and when heard by Mr. Sneddon's rich tenor it leaves an impression not soon forgotten.

The management has also secured the services of Master Rogers, the wonderful Boy Singer, for the Globe, and in future the patrons of that house will hear his sweet child voice in the illustrated songs.

The pictures at the GLOBE are excellent this week—especially noticeable is "THE CONVICT'S SACRIFICE" and "THE WOMAN'S WAY."

There is a revival of the ear pend-

Superintendent E. C. Manson of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacific returned this morning from a business trip to Carson, Nevada, and to San Francisco. He visited the latter city to secure necessary data with which to appear before the Nevada State Railroad commission at Carson in reference to tariff rates on the Nevada and California railroad, extending from Hazen to Keeler, a distance of 330 miles.

While this road has been operated as a part of the Southern Pacific system, it has been conducted as a distinct and separate company until recently when it was leased for a long term of years by the Southern Pacific and has now become merely a district of the Salt Lake division. This change affected tariff rates materially over that line, and resulted in an investigation by the Nevada State Railroad commission and a conference between the members of the board and operating officials of the Southern Pacific. When the existing conditions were fully explained at Carson, however, the conference was postponed until September, when the issues involved will be taken up again at Carson.

Superintendent Manson says business continues very heavy over the Salt Lake division and that the road between Ogden and Sparks, including the cut-off, is in excellent shape to handle everything that comes to it for transportation.

JOIE'S PROGRAM

The bill at the Joie Theater this week is about the best ever seen in Ogden and the picture loving public cannot afford to miss it. Following is the program:

PICKPOCKETS FORFEIT $50

THEY HAD BEEN HELD ON SUSPICION BY POLICE.

Three Men Guilty of Disturbing the Peace Are Fined—Two Cases of Drunkenness.

Thomas McCarthy and Thomas Hill debrand failed to appear in police court this morning when their names were called and in consequence each forfeited his bail of $50.

These men were suspected of being pickpockets and were arrested in connection with the thieving done on the Bamberger railroad. They were released from this charge a few days ago, however, because of lack of evidence to convict them, but were re-arrested on the charge of petit larceny the same day. They are said to be members of a bold, bad gang of pickpockets, who have operated in all of the larger cities of the west.

W. C. Summers showed signs of being "three seas over" when he stood up to plead in police court this morning, and the judge had him sent back to jail until tomorrow, when it is hoped he will know whereof he speaks. C. Bowers pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and was fined $5.

Thomas Clark and William A. Love pleaded guilty to having committed the same offense, and each received a similar punishment.

Frank Bishop was drunk, too. He didn't beat around the bush, but came right out and said he had been naughty. He was fined $5.

Another splendid show is promised for the coming week. It will include the famous boy comedian, Laddie Clif. This little English lad is one of the highest salaried performers now in vaudeville. He is a comedian, singer and dancer. Other acts on the bill include the original Eight Madcaps, the wonderful pony ballet which has an international fame; Frank Meyn Kelly and his company in "Tom and Jerry," a comedy sketch; Max Wilt's Colleen's in songs of the old and new worlds; Cooper and Robinson, negro entertainers, who are classed with Williams & Walker, as comedians and Grace Armond, a dainty singing comedienne. Tickets are already on sale. The night prices at the Orpheum are 15, 25, 50 and 75 cents.
